Dudinka

Get acquainted with everyday life, ethnic cuisine, traditions, culture and customs of ethnic groups inhabiting Taimyr. Guests will see ethno-cultural complex under the open sky «Taimyr Mow», visit Taimyr Museum of local history, and enjoy folk art exhibition. Afterwards, guests will be privileged to see Zhenya – a well-preserved woolly mammoth, which is named for the 11-year-old boy who discovered it. See «the mammoth of the century» for yourself. Guests will also have a unique chance to visit the unreachable place with the sweeping landscapes – the Plateau Putorana. The area was given UNESCO World Heritage status, this is a sight that must be seen to be believed.

Tyakha

See hundreds of reindeer in their natural habitat, a real chum (shelter similar to yurt) and a big bonfire. That's an exclusive sight may only see once in a life! Enjoy warm interactive meeting on the shore, cuisine of indigenous nations and get incredible memories for life. Be sure to take a picture in the chum and with a deer. Feel the life of nomads.

Igarka

Enjoy a bus tour to the Museum of Permafrost, where visitors, down the small stairs, find themselves in the eternal ice zone. The museum is located in permafrost soil at a depth of 7–10 m, here guests can see a unique phenomenon about 50,000 years old – «Ice Mountain».

Yermakovo

After a kilometer hike through the real Siberian forest, guests will see the remains of the northernmost railway. The grand construction which claimed the lives of more than 300,000 people, also called as the «Dead Road». The whole history of the Stalinist repressions silently froze in fragments of the rut.

Turukhansk

Welcome to the central village of the largest region of the Krasnoyarsk Area. The living conditions here are severe: frosts reach  $-60^{\circ}\text{C}$ , and in summer the air temperature rises to  $+35^{\circ}\text{C}$ . There are no railways in the region, only air communication, river and motor transportation. Nevertheless, the beauty and natural reaches of this place are legendary. Guests will visit the Museum of Regional Studies of Turukhansk region and the Memorial House-Museum of Y. Sverdlov.

Kangotovo

Guests will arrive on the legendary land, the first Russian settlement founded by Mangazeya Cossacks in 1607 on the right bank of the Yenisey River. There is a guided tour around the camp with a lecture about the mysterious Ket people.

Guests can buy fish, taiga tea, souvenirs of the peoples of the north, take pictures in national clothes against the background of an authentic Ket camp and play the national musical instrument. Guests will also try local treats and tea with taiga herbs sitting by the evening fire.

Old Believers Village

A walking tour around the village that guests will not find on Google Maps and a meeting with local Old Believers who are not on Facebook. Get ready to get back in time! The Old Believers have honored traditions and their religious way of life for centuries. Guests will get acquainted with the culture and a household family of the Old Believers and listen to the stories about their connection with fellow believers, the peculiarities of the economy, a distinctive cuisine and everyday activities.

Bakhta

Guests will have the opportunity to sail on real tarred wooden Siberian boats, taste delicious fish soup on the shore, and try your hand at traditional fishing, as well as picking northern berries in the forest.

Yartsevo

The oldest village on the Yenisey is located between two tributaries – the Kas and Sym rivers. Due to its favorable location, Yartsevo became one of the first Russian settlements on the Yenisey, an outpost in the development of Yenisey Siberia. During the walking tour, guests will be able to get acquainted with the rich history of the village and visit the outdoors territory of local residents, hear a story about their distinctive cuisine, taste pies, and see a demonstration of fishing tools of Siberian kerzhaks.

Yeniseisk

Merchant houses, monasteries, narrow streets and the spirit of an ancient city with four hundred years of history, which has retained its original appearance to this day. There are many magnificent museums in Yeniseisk, for example, the local «Planer Museum» is listed in the Guinness Book of Records! Guests will learn what kind of object it is and how to use it while viewing the largest collection of planers in the world.

Galanino

In the real Russian huts guests will get acquainted with the everyday life of the Cossacks. Guests will be welcomed in the best traditions of Siberian hospitality, treated with local liquors and tea from a samovar with crusty pies. They will tell guests about the features of their way of life and hold a master class on birch bark. Guests will hear old Cossack songs that have sounded over the Yenisey for centuries.

Krasnoyarsk

A city of incredible blends: the central part with ancient merchant houses, the largest factories and plants, wildlife and world-class ski resorts – all this harmoniously adjoins each other and emphasizes the special, unique character of Krasnoyarsk. Enjoy stunning north bridges, a huge number of fountains and stroll along one of the longest streets in the world. Dinner in the city at the restaurant «Tayga master» with concert programme will be waiting our guests. Discover Krasnoyarsk's sights: picturesque viewpoint with the monument «Tsar-Fish» and Krasnoyarsk Hydrostation.
